PRESS RELEASE

South County Juvenile Justice Forum

Saturday, May 15, 2004

9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Glad Tidings Church

27745 Tyrell Avenue, Hayward, California

With assistance through a grant awarded by the Foundation of the State Bar, and to continue to meet the needs of the community, the Alameda County Superior Court will host the South County Juvenile Justice Forum on Saturday, May 15, 2004 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Glad Tidings Church located at 27745 Tyrell Avenue in Hayward. In conjunction with a similar forum held last fall in North County, and as part of the Court's Strategic Plan, the goal of the Forum is to bring together representatives of the justice community, service providers, faith-based organizations, youth, parents, and neighborhood associations to engage in meaningful dialog about the critical issues surrounding juvenile justice.

Participants will have the opportunity to gain information about the issues, and learn about the organizations and individuals who are working on behalf of our youth. The Hon. Carl W. Morris, Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court, and members of the Juvenile Justice Forum Planning Committee believe this Forum will be informative, and will strengthen the links of communication and understanding for the community. This year, the Planning Committee has included high school students from throughout South County to assist in the development of the Forum. For information and registration contact:
