Rule 3.27. Electronic filing and service

(a) ~~Effective date and m~~Mandatory use of electronic filing

Represented parties and other represented persons must participate in electronic filing (e-filing) using a court-approved electronic service provider (EFSP) and must serve and accept service electronically, except by court order or if other service is required by law. Under rule 2.253(b)(4) of the California Rules of Court, anyone required to e-file may request an exemption by filing a Request For Exemption From Mandatory Electronic Filing and Service (form EFS-007) with the assigned department or, if not assigned, with the supervising judge of the civil division.

~~The court adopts electronic filing (e-filing) in all civil and civil appeal proceedings as follows: Starting on October 12, 2021, or on a later effective date to be posted on the Court's website at [insert specific URL], e-filing is permissive. Any party may elect to complete filings using a court-approved Electronic Filing Service Provider ("EFSP"), and to receive service from such Electronic Filing Service Provider. Commencing January 1, 2022, or six weeks following a later posted launch date, e-filing will be mandatory for all represented parties. Counsel for represented parties must file and accept service using a court-approved EFSP. Any self-represented party who consents to participate in the e-filing system also consents to thereafter file, serve and accept service by electronic means.~~

(b) Permissive use of electronic filing

Self-represented parties and other self-represented persons may consent to participate in e-filing, using a court-approved EFSP, by filing a notice of consent with the court and serving all parties. Unless other service is required by law or court order, anyone who consents to participate in e-filing must serve and accept service electronically.

~~(b)~~(c) ~~Technical~~Additional requirements

~~Filings shall be made through a court-approved EFSP. The Court will maintain and update as needed a Civil E-filing Page on its website that will contain relevant information, including technical requirements for e-filing, approved EFSPs and Frequently Asked Questions regarding e-filing. All filings Documents must be e-filed made in a searchable PDF format and otherwise comply with the technical requirements listed on the Court's website, which includes a list of court-approved EFSPs and Frequently Asked Questions. The mandatory courtesy-copy requirements under local rule 3.30(c) apply to all e-filings.~~

~~(c)~~ ~~Electronic service/mandatory use~~

~~All parties who are required or consent to e-filing must serve all documents electronically on those participating in electronic filing.~~
